Elegant Luxury Home with Breathtaking Views

Discover the epitome of sophisticated living in this elegant and thoughtfully-designed home, meticulously crafted for your ease, entertainment, and pure enjoyment. This luxury residence offers an unobstructed and breathtaking view that spans across the South Pacific mountains, including the crown jewel of Southern Costa Rica: the Whale's Tail National Park.

When you make this place your home, you're welcoming beautiful new days that begin and end with tranquility, peace, and rejuvenation. This is achieved through spacious open layouts, high ceilings, captivating vistas, and refined aesthetics. With over 7000 sq ft of artfully crafted construction, this home truly has it all!

Perched majestically atop one of the area's most sought-after mountains, this home boasts the unique advantage of being located just off a pristine, newly paved mountain road, offering you the perfect blend of experience and convenience.

Your new sanctuary includes two master bedrooms, each with full ensuite bathrooms, king-size beds, walk-in closets, and sliding doors that open onto a sweeping veranda that wraps around the entire home. Additionally, a third bedroom can accommodate extra guests or serve as a versatile office. What's even more enticing is the potential for expansion on the main level, making room for many more bedrooms to suit your lifestyle.

Designed for entertainment, the open concept kitchen, dining, and living area seamlessly extends to the covered wrap-around veranda, creating a harmonious indoor/outdoor living space. Here, you can relish in the safety and comfort of indoor living while feeling intimately connected to the boundless mountain and ocean views. Thoughtfully furnished with an emphasis on quality and comfort, you'll feel right at home from the moment you step in.

But there's more to this home than meets the eye. Don't miss the private gym and pool. The main level features an oversized, glass-enclosed gym, so you won't have to go far to work off those margaritas you'll be enjoying by your private hydro-massage pool during the beautifully temperate Costa Rican mountain evenings.

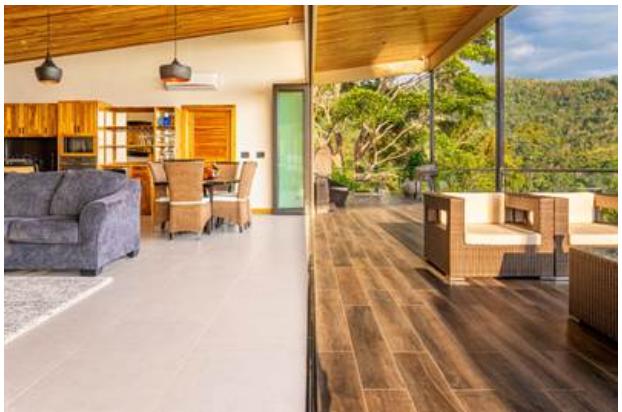

In total, your new sanctuary encompasses 3 bedrooms, 4 bathrooms, a hydro-massage pool, a wrap-around veranda, a private gym, covered parking for 4+ vehicles, additional space for uncovered parking, a fully outfitted custom kitchen, a spacious living and dining area that offers a front-row seat to the natural landscape's beauty, top-of-the-line appliances, ample storage, and much more.
